HOW WE LAUGHED
ALL

A photograph of a grey utility box on a sidewalk. The box has the words "HOW WE LAUGHED ALL OUR TEARS AWAY" written on it in black, hand-painted capital letters. To the left of the box is a parking lot with two dark cars. Behind the cars is a concrete fence and some trees. To the right of the box is a light blue building with four windows that have white shutters. There is some tall grass between the sidewalk and the building.

A man with dark, wavy hair and glasses, wearing a red long-sleeved shirt, is shown in profile from the side. He is holding a black marker and writing on a light-colored, textured wall. The wall appears to be made of a material like plaster or concrete, with some areas showing peeling paint or peeling paper, particularly on the left and right sides. The man is looking down at the wall as he writes. The text he is writing is in all caps and is arranged in four lines.
